THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 19.

THE SECOND WARD RADICAL CLUB held their regular meeting last night, at their "usual place of meeting," C. W. DeWitt, President, in the chair; C. J. Burton Secretary. The meeting being called to order and opened with "prayer" by Frederick Gray, the following "preamble" and "resolutions" were offered by Levi Potter colored, and adopted-of course.

"WHEREAS, We are credibly informed that a proposition is before our Constitutional Convention to disfranchise all persons who have heretofore received aid from the Freedmen's Bureau (making the principal of pauperism, retrospective instead of prospective) to the detriment of the former slave, and present oppressed freedmen, who have spent years of unrequited toil, and were freed without the requisite outfit of education, and the worldly goods, the product of his over-taxed labor, and WHEREAS we know the great aim and object of the Republican party is the promotion of the welfare and prosperity of all the people, without regard to race, color, or previous condition, by such measures as will give employment to labor, and furnish capital safe and profitable in vestment, yielding contentment, comfort and happiness to all, developing the dormant resources of the State, thereby adding to her 112. Oats in fair request, with sales at 73a75. material wealth, as also to the wealth of her | Rye 170 and quiet. citizens individually; and,

WHEREAS Congress has, in our opinion, legislated in the spirit of christianity and humanity, with malice to none and good will to all, desiring to promote the glory of the nation, and make our whole people free in fact as well as in name, as also to guard against a future opportunity or cause for rebellion, and desiring to elevate the colored man instead of degrading the white man; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we earnestly pray the members of our Constitutional Convention not to visit upon the heads of the African race a condign punishment, (that would be equally injurious to the poor white man) because we have been compelled to teel the iron heel of oppression, were denied the privilege of education as well as the just reward of our unremitting toil, as we think the act would be unjust to us and the effect would doubtless be to throw the government of the State into the hands of the old slave obligarchy , to the exclusion of the rights and preferment of every poor man, however deserving.

2. That we honestly desire and earnestly entreat all who have been politically opposed to the doctrine of Republicanism (another name for liberty and the rights of manhood) to throw aside their false gods who have led the masses of the people to their ruin, in order that the few might fatten on the ill requited labor of the many, to calmuly consider their present condition and the prospective future, and to deliberately eschew the false doctrine | feet front, and running back 73 feet 5 inches. and "Jack o'lantern" light of Andrew Johnson, as a curse, not only to themselves, but the whole nation, and to dispense with the hypocritical professions of Unionism, and honestly and earnestly exert themselves to restore our old "Mother of States" to her normal condition.

3. That the colored men of Virginia, wish it to be distinctly understood, that they ask for no special privileges or favors, but simply desire fair and just compensation for their labor, and a fair and equal chance in the race of life.' W h e w e!!!

RAILROAD MATTERS .- Mr. H. W. Vandegrift, the energetic Superintandent of the O.& A.&M. Railroad, was in the city yesterday. The object of his visit was to make arrangements for of every kind and description, comprising the establishment of a permanent connection with the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad at the depot of the latter.

We are pleased to learn from Mr. Vandegrift that the through travel, which was to a great extent driven off from this route by the unfortunate break of connection, is fast returning, and he expects that under the present favorable schedule it will speedly be re-established. When the advantages of the route become fully known, it cannot fail to be exceedingly popular with the travelling public, and will doubtless become the great line of communication between the North and the South.

Mr. Vandegrift informs us that work on the Manassas Road, which was suspended during the winter months, has been resumed, and is progressing satisfactorily. The road will be completed to Mount Jackson by the first of May and to Harrisonburg by the first of October. So that it will be ready to bear off to market the teeming crops of that fertile region the coming season. He is greatly encouraged at the prospects of the important work with which he is connected, and thinks that renewed and increased prosperity awaits it. Mr. Vandegrift also takes deep interest in the projected Danville road, and believes that when built it will be the best feeder to his line that it will have. - Lynchburg Virginian.

THE EINTRACHT BALL.—The ball of the Eintracht, at their hall, last night, was very numerously attended, and was one of the most agreeable of the many pleasant entertainments given by the association. Everything passed off in the most satisfactory manner, nothing whatever occurring to mar the harmony and pleasure of the occasion. The costumes worn by the maskers, were some of them gorgeous, some plain, some unique, some grotesque, forming a spectacle seldem witnessed in this place, and most pleasing to look upon. Dancing was kept up until an early hour this morning, when the ball broke up, and the participants retired, to dream of the gay and festive scenes of the night. The receipts were considerable, and will be applied to charitable objects.

THE BALLARD HOUSE, RICHMOND.-It will be seen by the advertisement in to-day's Gazette, that the Ballard House, in Richmond, has been again opened by its energetic and popular founder, Mr. John P. Ballard, who deserves encouragement and success. It was announced but a few days since, that the Ballard House had been closed, but unsubdued and with all of his original determination, the proprietor comes forth again to greet the publie with open doors and sumptuous hospitality.

MOUNT VERNON TRIPS. -The Washington Republican says:-"We learn that the ferry company intends drawing off the Wawaset on the trips to Mount Vernon, in consequence of the Mount Vernon Asssociation having made arrangements with other parties."

FISH.—The arrivals of fresh fish are few, and barely sufficient to supply the market. Perch and rock of small size were selling this morning at 50 cts. a bunch.
